Agent and two of the potential buyers commented on the extremely high quality of the workmanship...

"When we met Peter, we were quite new to the building world. He guided us all the way, offering advice, solutions and cost savings. The project was on a tight time schedule, and Peter managed the build brilliantly. Nothing was too much trouble.

When we sold the house, both the agent and two of the potential buyers commented on the extremely high quality of the workmanship throughout the house. This is a credit to Peter, his team and his contractors.

Unlike larger building companies who handle many clients simultaneously, we deal with a smaller number of clientele, which enables us to offer a superior level of customer service.

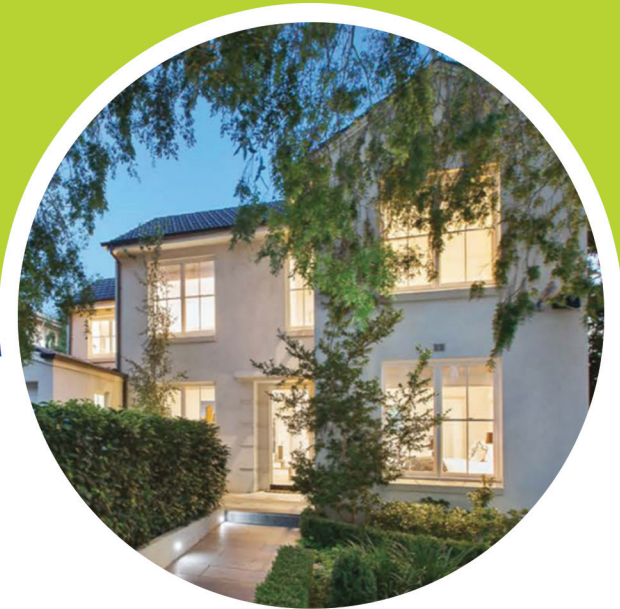

For 27 years every client of Skills Unlimited Services has always been treated with the upmost respect and consideration. We assure you maximum attention and support throughout the entire project process, from the initial consultation though to you proudly revealing your renovation to your family and friends.

Exceptional craftsmanship

We take tremendous pride in our workmanship. After 27 years of service in Melbourne, we know what to consider from product choice to artistry methods. Our stringent quality control measures across all steps of the project, ensure that your project is always of exceptional high calibre, meaning that your renovation will meet even the most disconcerting high standards.
